*GREETING OF PEACE

SCRIPTURE

Luke 4:1-13

Stewart Jenkins

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written, "One does not live by bread alone." '

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, 'To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written,

"Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him." '

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, 'If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written,

"He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you", and

"On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone." '

Jesus answered him, 'It is said, "Do not put the Lord your God to the test." '

When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Nothing can trouble, nothing can frighten. Those who seek God shall never go wanting.

Nothing can trouble, nothing can frighten. God alone fills us.

Nada te turbe, nada te espante. Solo Dios basta.

PRAYERS OF CONFESSION AND RENEWAL

One: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

All: Let us trust in God: faithful and just and forgiving.

One: Brothers and sisters in Christ, let us call to mind the truth of our lives, and where we are broken let us seek healing and renewal in God's mercy.

All: Dear God, we ask you to forgive us and help us. We do things we shouldn't, and we fail to do what we know is good. We do not always tell the truth. We are not always kind. And often we do not really believe that love is better than selfishness and hate. Help us to know that we are all your children, and to trust that love is the way you care for us and would have us care for others.

Help us to keep faith in Jesus, and to live as he lived, so that we may live forever with you. (silent meditation)

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH ...concluding with A Prayer in the Spirit of Jesus

Earth-Maker, Life-Giver, Pain-Bearer, Source of all that is and all that shall be,

Father and Mother of us all, Loving God in whom is Heaven:

May the hallowing of your name echo through the universe.

May your Heavenly will be done by all creatures great and small.

And may your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

With the bread we need this day, feed us. For the hurt we inflict on one another, forgive us.

Through times of temptation, strengthen us. From trials too great to endure, spare us.

From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is Love.

 2 A - bove the lev - el of the for - mer years,
 3 Lift ev - ery gift that God to us has given;

for in your pres - ence it is right to do;
 the mire of sin, the weight of guilt - y fears,
 low lies the best till blessed by God in heaven;

"Lift up your hearts!" In joy to - geth - er laud,
 The mist of doubt, the blight of love's de - cay,
 Low lie the bound - ing heart, the teem - ing brain,

"We lift them up, we lift them up to God."
 O God of life, lift all our hearts to - day!
 till, once more, they re - turn to God a - gain.

This text is a meditation written for students at Harrow School, England. It is based on a liturgical dialogue, Sursum Corda, used since the third century in the Eastern and Western church to introduce the eucharisteō or prayer of consecration.
